

THE B.A IN TRANSLATION PROGRAM AT THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES

CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO ITS SYMPOSIUM ON

TRANSLATION: A PROCESS OF KNOWLEDGE CONSTRUCTION

Translation is an educational process that assists people of different cultures to comprehend and appreciate each other's distinctive beliefs and values, thus reducing social tension and resolving conflicts. This symposium discusses translation techniques and the role of translators as mediators engaged in constructing linguistic, cultural, and content knowledge.

PROGRAM

- 9:00-9:15 a.m. Welcoming addresses
- Dr. Nuwar Diab, Director of the Translation Program
 - Dr. Paul Tabar, Chair of the Department of Humanities
-
- 9:15 - 9:35 a.m. المترجم ببناء الذات; Dr. Gina Abou Fadel Saad
-
- 9:45- 10:05 a.m. The Rhetorical and Argumentative Orientations in Fables in a Comparative Study of Latin and Arabic-Farsi Cultures: One Fable with Two Morals; Dr. Hoda Moukannas
-
- 10:15 - 10:35 a.m. الترجمة في العالم العربي: معوقات وافاق مستقبلية من أجل مشروع معرفي متكامل; Dr. Jean Jabbour
-
- 10:40 - 11:00 a.m. Coffee break
-
- 11:05 - 11:25 p.m. Translation, Politics, and the Construction of Knowledge: Building Connections between Theory and Practice; Dr. Michelle Hartman
-
- 11:35 - 12:25 p.m. Poster Presentations of Senior Projects: Works in Progress; Translation Students
-
- 12:30 - 12:35 p.m. Closing statement
- Dr. Nuwar Diab

THURSDAY,
MARCH 17,
2016

Adnan Kassar School of Business,
Room 903